"DELOY'S GENERATIONS TRIO!"

Sunday, Sept. 23rd 2 pm, Holiday Hills Ballroom

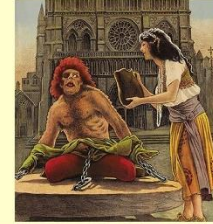

They're back! DeLoy Goeglein and his Generations Trio will return to the Holiday Hills Ballroom on September 23 for another helping of their fun variety of toe-tapping Popular and Jazz Standard tunes that was so well-received here the last two years. DeLoy, Mariann and Dino maintain a very active schedule of engagements around Denver entertaining audiences with their vast repertoire of musical memories. DeLoy will play the theatre organ after intermission.

"Hunchback of Notre Dame"

October 28th 2 pm, Lakewood Cultural Center

Lance Luce takes command of the Lakewood Cultural Center's STR-4 Digital Theatre Organ as he accompanies this classic silent horror film. Discounted tickets will be available for purchase at the Trio's September 23rd Holiday Hills social! If you would like to check out Lance Luce as an organist go to YouTube.com and do a search on "Lance Luce." Be sure to look at the clips of him playing the STR-4 (same instrument as at LCC!) for the Detroit Red Wings at Little Caesar's Arena in Detroit.

Put a Smile on Your Face!

"MILE HIGH BANJO SOCIETY"

Sunday, Nov. 18th 2 pm, Holiday Hills Ballroom

The Mile High Banjo Society returns to Holiday Hills in November for another fun round of musical merriment. Band members are John Mumford, lead and 5-string banjos; Donna Smith, banjo; Decker Westerberg, washboard and National steel guitar; Ron "Snake" Moermond, banjo; Molly Kaufmann, piano; and Jim Calm, tuba and theatre organ. All band members take turns singing and Jim will play some theatre organ solos and accompany the singers. Put a smile on your face!

Do-re-mi-fa-la-la-la-la-la-la-la!

Christmas Tea Potluck

Sunday, Dec. 2nd 2 pm, Holiday Hills Ballroom

Our December 2nd members-only club potluck will be a little different this year. It will not be a meal as in the past, but will be a "Christmas Tea." The club will provide coffee, tea, lemonade and small sandwiches. The potluck from members will be cookies (no pies), sweets, fresh fruit, crackers and cheeses. Members will be asked to sign up at the November social if they plan to attend the December event. No need to list what they plan to bring. The December newsletter will repeat the potluck details and give phone numbers to call for those who have not signed up. Christmas and holiday music will be provided!

The Gentleman from Brighton!

Randy Morris, Musician

January 2019 TBA, Holiday Hills Ballroom

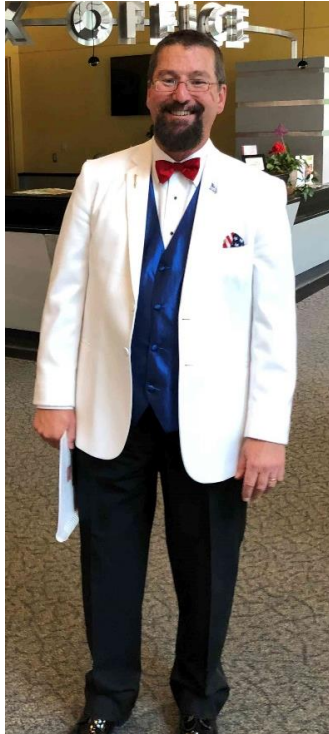

Randy Morris is Music Director and Organist at Zion Lutheran Church in Brighton and has experience as a pizza parlor organist and music salesman. Randy has played programs at Holiday Hills, has performed at the Paramount in Pipes & Stripes and was featured last October at the Lakewood Cultural Center where he provided the organ accompaniment for the silent film classic "Phantom of the Opera." Randy and his fellow Brighton organist friend Bev Bucci played a very well-received edition of "Got Gospel." Randy will return to the Holiday Hills ballroom this January, 2019, and share his considerable talents. We've tentatively set the program date for January 13th, pending Holiday Hills confirmation. Morris the Cat was finicky, Morris the Musician is very talented!

A Feat for the Feet! Feet me, Seymour!

Footloose III

The always amazing Dave Wickerham had the Lakewood Cultural Center audience tapping their toes and standing on their feet for "Footloose III" in July. Dave was joined on stage by dancers who really cut a rug, and Lee Shaw's big-screen aerial camera work really showed off Dave's feet dancing on the pedals. Dave played a wonderful and varied program that dazzled the audience with his pyrotechnics. Feet, feet, feet, lots of feet!!!!

Teamster on the Tibias

Retired truck driver and "Teamster on the Tibias" Doug Thompson kept on truckin' in June on the Holiday Hills digital organ playing a beautiful program of ballads with a wonderfully relaxed style. He was joined after intermission by Bob Castle on the grand piano playing a program of crowd-pleasing duets.

Free Day at the Paramount

Long-time Paramount House Organist Bob Castle welcomed an appreciative audience to Bob's Castle in August. Ten organists took a turn at the Master Console of the 4/21 Publix I Wurlitzer including Bob,

Kem Barney, Jim Calm, Ben Ehrlich, DeLoy Goeglein, Chapter Photographer Bill Kwinn, Kenrick Mervine, Bruce Spangler, Doug Thompson and Kevin Utter. Kenrick's wife Barbara narrated an organ demonstration piece and son Gabriel played his trumpet. The organ was prepared by David Charles and Ryan Kroll, Rich Brooks hosted the hospitality table and Lee Shaw produced the event.
