

Pipes along the Rockies

Newsletter of the Rocky Mountain Chapter
American Theatre Organ Society, Inc.

July, 2022

Information Line: 303-530-2421

Doug Thompson

Sunday, July 17th 2 pm, Holiday Hills Ballroom

Listening to Doug rehearse for this social is like watching a master chef prepare a gourmet meal. Each stop is added to his registration because it adds a desired tonal flavor, and his discerning palate cooks up some tasty, mellow tunes! Doug's artistic palette also blends the many tone colors available on this wonderful digital theatre organ, and we promise to set up chairs for the audience so you don't need to sit on a pallet! Come and enjoy!

A Letter from the Prez

We're Back! Greetings all! We've reached that point in summer where the temps are high, and we really want to do something entertaining, but doggone it, it's just too hot! Well, I'm here to tell you that the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the American Theatre Organ Society is back in business!

We have dates for socials at Holiday Hills scheduled through September that are listed in this newsletter. There is something for everyone.

Now, I have one request... I am challenging each and every one of you to the following. Our attendance has been waning, especially with the past two years of being in limbo. I am challenging each of you to bring a guest with you to upcoming socials. I know you all have that person or two that you would really like to invite. Now is the time to do just that. Nothing would make me happier than to keep adding more chairs! See what you can do! I'm looking forward to seeing some new faces at our next social, Sunday July 17! Visitors attend free!

Thank you all for your continued support of our group! It is greatly appreciated by us all!

DeLoy's Generations Trio

Sunday, August 21st 2 pm, Holiday Hills Ballroom

The Generations Trio will return and play another packed program of old standards from the Great American Songbook. Bandleader Marianne Finch is on bass, her son Dino Cuneo plays drums and treasured long-time organist DeLoy Goeglein will tickle the grand piano ivories and perform on the George Wright 4 digital theatre organ.

DeLoy's Trio is always a hit with our Holiday Hills audience. Come sing-along and smile-along with us!

Got Gospel?

Sunday, Sept. 25th 2 pm, Holiday Hills Ballroom

Randy Morris and Bev Bucci will raise the rafters in September with another verse of the always popular "Got Gospel?" Randy and Bev are longtime music directors at Brighton churches and work very well together to create beautiful and uplifting music to make our spirits soar and our hearts sing!
