Sunday, Oct. 30th 2 pm, Lakewood Cultural Center

National Touring and Recording Artist Ken Double, Southern Gentleman of the Theatre Organ, will be at the console of the LCC 4-manual digital theatre organ in October. Ken has the dream job of playing the Atlanta Fox "Mighty Mo," a 42-rank 4-manual theatre pipe organ. Ken will play a short concert "launched" from the orchestra pit, then will accompany "Phantom of the Opera." A note on the ticket prices and convenience fees: Individual tickets at box office: Adults $15, Students $5; Individual tickets by phone or internet: Adults $19, Students $7; Group tickets at box office or by phone: $13 plus a $15 group fee; Group tickets by internet: $17.

His horn went "Keep-Keep-Keep!"

Keep Calm, and Calmly Keep Keepin' On!

Sunday, Nov. 13th 2 pm, Holiday Hills Ballroom

Multi-talented musician Jim Calm will do his thing in November at the Holiday Hills ballroom. Jim will perform on the Theatre Organ, Grand Piano and the Lowrey Royale organ. There will be one-ba, tuba and maybe three-ba, solos accompanied by the organ's auto-play feature, Theremin and a few surprises!

Christmas Cookie Social

Sunday, Dec. 11th 2 pm, Holiday Hills Ballroom

Our traditional Christmas Cookie Social will be held on December 11th. Lee Traster will provide background holiday music on piano and organ. Anyone is welcome to come up and play a Christmas song or two on the piano or organ just for fun! Watch for details in the December newsletter. Always good times with good friends, good cookies and lots of good music! And always a great Christmas sing-along!

2023 Dues are almost Due!

2020 was the last time the organ club collected dues. What interesting times we've experienced! Anyone who paid their 2020 dues had them automatically extended for 2021 and 2022. Treasurer Ryan Kroll will have renewal information in our December newsletter. Anyone wanting to renew early for 2023 can deliver $15 to Ryan in person at one of our socials or mail a check to: Ryan Kroll, 1978 Buena Vista Pl, Loveland CO 80538. Thanks for hanging in there!

DELOY'S GENERATIONS TRIO

The Generations Trio played a wonderful program in August with DeLoy Goeglein on piano, bandleader Marianne Finch on bass and her son Dino Cuneo on drums. The Trio played a full set of memorable old tunes, and following intermission DeLoy moved over to the digital theatre organ and played a varied and entertaining program. DeLoy has been entertaining audiences since he was a student at Denver's East High School and would sneak out with fellow student, singer Judy Collins and perform on her father's radio show. DeLoy was one of the organists at the Denver Organ Grinder.

Beware: e-mail scam!

Someone got access to the organ club's RMCATOS@comcast.net email account and sent some members a bogus friendly-sounding request for you to send them a $100 gift card. That is not from us! Do not send them anything! There are people out there who try to take advantage of nice people like you and take your money. Please be careful!

Doug Thompson Played it Wright!

Beautiful music was bustin' out all over in July at the Holiday Hills ballroom. Organist Doug Thompson played his smooth ballads for an appreciative audience and did a friendly question and answer time. Doug plays with a relaxed style that brought back happy memories and was enjoyed by all!

Front Range All- Star Banjo Band

The Front Range Banjo Band strummed it up in June. Dennis Condrey played the plectrum banjo, Dave Marshall played banjo and his 4-string Gibson guitar, Lee Traster was on grand piano and Jim Calm played the Cervenky Kaiser tuba. Jim also played several tunes on the theatre organ with the band and played some solos. Fingers were snapped!

Colorado Springs PPATOS Events

The 27th season of Sacklunch Serenades at the Immanuel Lutheran Organ Gym concluded with a Finale program featuring some of the organists who had performed this summer, a list that included Jim Calm, Mike Guyote, Randy Morris, Father Nick Taylor, Doug Thompson and National Artists Stephen Brittain and John Ledwon. Many thanks to Father Nick Taylor for taking over the monumental task of negotiating with multiple parties with wisdom and patience to make these concerts happen! Sacklunch Serenade concerts will resume in December with holiday music performed on the awesome 4-manual 35-rank custom Dave Weesner organ!
