

Ticket Horse / Paramount information sheet for:

RED, WHITE & BLUE RAGTIME REVUE

Denver Paramount Theatre

Sunday, October 16, 2011 – 2 pm

General Admission Tickets $12 (additional fees may apply)

Tickets include free parking at either:

Dominion Towers (Welton between 16th & 17th)

410 Garage (Tremont between 16th & 17th)

Students 18 and under, no ticket required

Truly a Dynamic Duo, Dave Wickerham at the Denver Paramount's Historic Mighty Wurlitzer Theatre Pipe Organ and Dick Kroeckel at the Concert Grand Piano will be presenting a fun afternoon of ragtime (and other) music and personal patter the whole family will enjoy.

Dave and Dick have performed similar concerts together receiving standing ovations and wild cheers of approval from audiences throughout the entire United States.

Dave Wickerham is the resident organist / curator for the Milhous Collection & Museum in Boca Raton, Florida. He is known internationally for his work as a solo theatre organist. Dave has been featured at the Denver Paramount in past years at the Footloose and Footloose II theatre organ events.

Dick Kroeckel is a noted piano technician and restorer of player pianos. He started his professional career in Evergreen, Colorado and for years was a ragtime pianist at a number of Colorado restaurants and casinos. Dick has also had prior performances at the Denver Paramount.